Destroyers Will Dash For Mexican Ports at First Indication
Of Their Need.

Vessels Depart From New York
Soon After Order Reaches Squadron.

No American Lives Endangered
So Far.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, May 5.—Secretary Daniels today ordered a division of destroyers now at New York with the Atlantic fleet to sail immediately for Key West where they will be held for possible duty in Mexican waters.

The tender, Black Hawk, and six destroyers under command of Captain Long, left New York at noon today.

Secretary Daniels said that Captain Long had been given full instructions as to the policy to be pursued in event it becomes necessary to send the destroyers to Mexican ports.

The vessels should reach Key West Thursday night or Friday and the run from there to Tampico and Vera Cruz would be a matter of only a few hours.

The State Department announced Monday it had asked the Navy Department to send destroyers to those two Mexican ports. The request was based on reports from American consuls who desired ships to take off American citizens if that should become necessary.

At the State Department today it was said that reports thus far received have not indicated that the lives of any American citizens had been endangered anywhere in Mexico as a result of the revolution.

EARNINGS ARE ESTIMATED AT $100,000,000

(By Associated Press)

Washington, May 5.—Earnings of the Federal Reserve System this fiscal year were estimated at $100,000,000 by the Board in testifying today at the Governor's hearing on the resolution proposing an investigation of the administration of the Federal Reserve act.

These earnings, he said, would exceed by ten million dollars those of last year, which represented a return of 110 percent on capital stock.

Twenty districts out of twenty-six in Kentucky instruct delegates for Ohioan.

Remaining Six Go Uninstructed

(By Associated Press)

Louisville, Ky., May 5.—Only Kentucky's delegates from the state at large were instructed by the democratic state convention to vote for Governor Cox of Ohio "as long as his name remains before the national convention," no mention being made of the twenty-two district delegates.

Governor Cox, however, will have twenty of the state's twenty-six votes, sixteen of the delegates having been ordered by their districts to support him, and the other six are uninstructed.

GETS ANOTHER

J. T. Griffith, one of the uninstructed delegates from the second district announced he would vote for Governor Cox, thus insuring Governor Cox at least 21 of the Kentucky delegation.

COST OF FOOD SHOWS HEAVY GAIN IN WORLD

(By Associated Press)

Washington, May 5.—The family food budget in February was exactly twice the sum expended for the same articles of food in February, 1913, according to Department of Labor statistics announced today.

During the same period in Great Britain the increase was 130 percent and in Germany, which outranked all countries, the increase was 224 percent.

FARM LOAN OFFICIALS DISCOVER NO WAY OUT

(By Associated Press)

Washington, May 5.—Federal farm loan officials in conference here had found no way to avoid a summer of inactivity in loaning operations. The sessions, which were practically concluded last night, brought convincing evidence, members said, that no further new business could be handled until the Supreme Court had passed on the validity of the farm loan act.

LATE RETURNS

(By Associated Press)

Indianapolis, May 5.—Returns from 2520 out of 3387 precincts this afternoon gave Wood 64,888; Johnson 59,225; Lowden 30,014; Harding 16,083.

(By Associated Press)

Indianapolis, May 5.—Major General Wood continued to make slight gains over Senator Johnson of California, his nearest opponent for the Indiana presidential preference vote in yesterday's state-wide primary as returns continued to be tabulated here today.

With 2249 precincts out of 3387 in the state reported, Wood was leading by a plurality of 6,540. The vote was: Wood 59,475; Johnson 52,935; Lowden 26,843; Harding 14,692.

Warren McCray, of Kentland, continued to pile up his early majority in the republican contest for the nomination of governor and had a lead of nearly 30,000 over his nearest opponent.

In the democratic contest for governor Dr. C. B. McColloch of Indianapolis was running away from the field and it was predicted he would easily win with a big majority.

Senator Johnson showed the strongest vote from the industrial centers. This vote is often considered a puzzle by the election experts who give up trying to account for the trend in various counties. Despite the spiritedness of the campaign there were comparatively few reports of trouble in any section of the state.

Republican State Convention

(By Associated Press)

Kalamazoo, Mich., May 4.—Chief interest in the republican state convention here today centered in prospects of a lively contest over the tone of the endorsement expected to be given Senator Johnson as Michigan's primary choice for the presidential nomination.

Four delegates at large to the national convention will be selected and two districts will name their delegates. Of the eleven districts which already have named delegates to the national convention, six left their representatives unpledged, four instructed for Senator Johnson, while one qualified its endorsement of Johnson with instructions that the delegates "abide by the result of the primary."

MURDERER LEADS PARTY TO GRAVE BODY UNEARTHED

(By Associated Press)

Dixieland, Cal., May 4.—The body of Nina Lee Delaney was found by the searching party directed by Walter Andrew Watson, her alleged slayer, this morning.

Five miles north of Coyote Wells, Watson halted the ambulance.

"There's the gulch," he said. Assisted by deputy sheriff, Watson walked to a spot near a small cliff. "There's the ledge," he said pointing.

Deputy sheriff turned a few shovel-fulls of earth and revealed the body. Watson, haggard, white-faced and with staring eyes due to his physical condition, was unshaken until the body of his victim lay in view. More than 100 curiosity seekers followed the party.

ASKS $20,000 DAMAGES FROM THE B. & O. R. R.

Administrator of Estate of Albert Haines Files Suit Due to Death at Grade Crossing.

Claims Warning Not Given And Train Obscured by Shrubbery Along Track.

As result of the death in Leesburg last May of Albert Haines, widely known and prominent farmer of near Buena Vista, when Mr. Haines was struck by a fast train on the B. & O. Railroad and instantly killed the administrator, Charles C. Redkey, has suit for $20,000 damages from the railroad company.

Plaintiff an administrator of the estate of Albert Haines states that in the village of Leesburg the B. & O. Railroad Company operates in a part of the town in which is located both business houses and private residences. That each and every day a great number of persons on foot and in vehicles and conveyances of different kinds travel and pass over the crossing of said railroad. That the ticket and freight depot is located on the west side of the streets and immediately north of the main track of the railroad. That by reason of the depot building and a dense growth of shrubs, bushes and small trees and the foliage thereon standing and growing over and on the right of way of the railroad, and on the north side and for a considerable distance west of the depot building, because of the business houses located on the west side of Fairfield street, north of the crossing travelers approaching the crossing from the north of the track were completely obscured until they reach a point in their course even with the south line of said depot building and a few feet north of the main track of the depot. On the 28th day of May, 1919, the decedent, Albert Haines was driving southward on Fairfield street in a spring wagon drawn by one horse and not seeing or hearing any train approaching said crossing and not being able to observe the approach of the train from the west, until he would reach a point in said street where the horse would be on said crossing when a train approached from the west at a rate of speed, upward of sixty miles per hour, and without checking the speed or giving warning to decedent in time for him to escape from his perilous position, said train collided with the wagon, and wagon and horse were thrown about fifty feet from the track and the decedent instantly killed. The decedent was 69 years old at the time of his death, was in robust health and very successful in his business of farming, deriving a net income of $3000 per year and his heirs and next of kin are damaged in the amount of $20,000 and ask judgment for same.

TIRED ALL THE TIME NO APPETITE

And Color Is Bad, Too—Muddy and Blotched. Know What the Trouble Is?

IT IS PROBABLY YOUR BLOOD

The Blood Is Often Sluggish in the Spring and Needs Purifying—Pepto-Mangan Will Help

The blood is life itself, and when your blood gets out of order, nothing seems right. You are blue, discouraged and out-of-sorts. Food loses its taste, and sleep does not seem to refresh you. You don't want to work, and cannot have a good time.

Then you say to yourself, "What's the matter with me, anyway?" Maybe you think of your blood, and maybe you don't.

Spring is here. And Spring, more than any other season, is the time people suffer most from blood disorders. Sometimes it is just "Spring Fever"—but conscientious, hard-working folks really suffer from Spring Fever.

They drive themselves, and worry and fret—but get little done. Neither body nor mind will function properly till the blood has purged itself of the winter accumulation of poisons—till it ceases to be sluggish—till it has regained its color and strength.

Years ago people took sulphur and molasses in the Spring to help their blood. But nowadays, instead, they take Pepto-Mangan, a nice-tasting, agreeable and quickly effective blood tonic. Pepto-Mangan is approved by physicians everywhere. It has helped thousands of run-down, listless people get back their old-time vigor and enthusiasm.

Everyone in your family should take a good blood purifier and builder this Spring. Get Pepto-Mangan today. Your druggist has it in both liquid and tablet form. Ask for Gude's Pepto-Mangan and see that the name "Gude's" is on the package.—Advt.

"Tanlac Soon Had Me Feeling Just Like a Different Man," Says Phillip Deppe.

"It was a lucky day for me when I started taking Tanlac," said Phillip Deppe, 807 East Market street, Louisville, Ky., a well known plumber, who has been in the employ of P. A. Vogel & Son, for many years.

"Why, I actually gained eight pounds in weight in two weeks time when I began taking it and the benefits I have received from it are little short of marvelous. For the past two years I had suffered severely from stomach trouble. After every meal what I ate began to sour and I would taste it for hours, and there was a heavy, indigestible feeling in my stomach. I often had terrible dizzy spells when I would become very weak, and at times I had to grab hold of something to keep from falling. About a year ago I began to suffer with rheumatism in my arms and legs, which pained me all the time, and often my muscles seemed to just draw into knots and it was an effort for me to get around. Then, too, I was bothered a great deal from constipation, for which I had to always be taking some sort of laxative."

"I tried many different treatments and medicines with out getting any relief, and had become very much discouraged, but when I saw where Tanlac had benefited so many others who described their condition as being similar to mine I decided to give it a trial. Well, sir, it just seemed to fit my case exactly, and went right after my troubles at once, and soon I was feeling a different man. I now haven't a trace of stomach trouble, can eat anything I want and everything agrees with me perfectly. My appetite is great and I enjoy what I eat more than I have in years. The rheumatism left me almost as soon as I began taking Tanlac, I never have a pain of any kind and get about as good as I ever could. In fact, I feel better in every respect than I have in years, and as I owe it all to Tanlac I am only too glad to recommend it to everybody."

Tanlac is sold in Washington by C. S. Flaver, in Lowell by Mason's Drug Store, in Jeffersonville by J. B. Davis, and in Octa by L. W. Murphy. —Advt.

To offset the evil of a sedentary life there is no better exercise than swimming, as it brings into activity every muscle in the body without any undue strain on any one set of muscles. Swimming keeps the muscles supple, enlarges the diaphragm and the thorax, wards off consumption, strengthens the spinal column, corrects the humpback and evils that arise from the use of improper clothing.

Swimming strengthens the lungs, because it compels deep breathing; it strengthens the nervous system, because it induces natural sleep; it strengthens the spine and enlarges the chest, because it causes the head to be thrown back and the chest out.

The oft repeated assertion that water weakens one is absurd, for the vitality of swimmers is as high as that of any other class of athletes.

Let there be a change; dispel that tired feeling which is induced by too much rest and swim to health.

Everybody economize

Nobody knows just how long the high prices for clothes are going to last; these prices are due to so many different causes all along the line from the raw wool to the finished product. The high cost of clothes isn't our fault, or yours, or any one person's fault; it's everybody's fault; it springs from causes that started long ago.

Now comes the overall club

It's a good thing because it shows that people want to economize; they want to reduce the cost of clothes.

But just wearing overalls won't do it; people have got to save, they must buy only what they need and when they do buy — get the best because it saves and lasts longer.

We've been telling you for the last year how you could reduce the cost of clothes; get good ones; the all-wool kind that Hart Schaffner & Marx make. They last longer; you save because you buy fewer clothes.

Tuesday's Vote

Tuesday, May 4th, eventful because of the voting in pivotal states by the republican voters, is behind us. In Indiana, where Wood, Johnson, Lowden and Harding were entered in a four-way free-for-all race—the first test of strength where more than two "leaders" were matched—resulted in a decisive victory for General Wood.

As was supposed, no one of the candidates received a majority of the votes cast, but General Wood's clear plurality has resulted in a decided boosting of his chances. The strength which the military man developed among the voters rather clashed with advanced predictions of many experts who expected the radical vote in the industrial centers to be cast almost solidly for Johnson, while the three other entrants divided the more conservative vote.

Next to the balloting in Indiana interest was centered in California where Johnson and Hoover asked the endorsement of party voters. California was the only state in which Hoover had been formally entered as a candidate and in which his name appeared on the ballot.

Johnson's political organization in California is second to none in vote controlling efficiency ever organized and its full force was brought into play. Hoover's organization was purely volunteer—a citizen organization against expert politicians and yet, while the returns are slow in coming in, it seems certain that if Johnson has received more votes than Hoover in the Golden State primaries, he has not scored such a pronounced success, in view of the circumstances which eliminates the former world food administrator.

Wood and Hoover, as pre-convention voting ends, are looming up as the big outstanding figures before the Chicago convention, with Johnson holding enough delegate votes to make him a factor to be reckoned with.

Another Strike

The most recent strike of consequence reported is that of twenty thousand cotton cloth workers in the thirty-seven mills of the New Bedford, Massachusetts, district.

Of course, that means a reduced production and consequently an opportunity for the manufacturers and brokers to talk and demand higher prices for cotton cloth and everything in which cotton cloth is used.

We must not, in view of the known profiteering of some of the manufacturers, be hasty in placing all the blame for the strike upon the workers.

If the cotton cloth mills owners are engaging in plundering the people of millions of dollars as the woolen cloth manufacturers are then it is only human for the workers to demand, through the same "unfair" means the employers use against the public, their bit of the loot.

It will be interesting, if officials act fearlessly in their investigations, to see just what attitude the employers will occupy at the wind-up.

The Mandatory of Armenia

Public opinion throughout the United States is unanimously in sympathy with struggling and oppressed Armenia. The cry of anguish and distress which has come from Armenia during the long years of torture that unhappy people have endured, has not fallen on deaf ears. Americans have heard that call and have responded liberally in energy and money to relieve, so far as they could, the suffering of the afflicted people.

The Armenian people are entitled to and are receiving every aid which Americans can, with safety to themselves, extend. Our charity has been prodigal and there is no doubt about our sincere desire to help Armenia.

At the same time public opinion seems equally unanimous in opposing, in view of conditions, the mandatory over Armenia proffered by the allies.

That offer to America at this time, in view of what has transpired in the course of the settlement of the war's problems, does not appeal to the American people's sense of fairness.

Other nations parties to the treaty of Versailles have taken unto themselves everything of value. Great Britain has added fabulous riches in concessions and in territory to her vast domain, as have France and Italy. Armenia only is left and Armenia is a tremendous liability, the greatest liability left by the war, and a greater liability to America than to any other nation.

For America to undertake the mandatory of Armenia on her own initiative is one thing, but to have that mandatory placed in her keeping by the other nations which have helped themselves so prodigiously to all the profitable opportunities is quite another matter.

POETRY FOR TODAY

AS A HUNTSMAN

The mother bird on downy nest
May safely there in quiet rest,
Nor fear my stealthy hunting quest—
My gun is but a camera.

No startled beast need be afraid
Of trap I set in forest glade;
The catch I seek is only made
By my unerring camera.

And so I range afar, a near,
And hunt my game with zeal sincere
Content with shots that cause no fear,
Made by my trusted camera.

My eager quests as deeply thrill
My heart, as though I sought to kill
For each approach must be with skill,
When I hunt with my camera.

WHAT a difference in these motor-car days, when every point in the county is hardly more than "just around the corner."

People's ideas are changing, too.

They're beginning to figure out how much it is costing them to keep a car. And the man who is doing the greatest amount of figuring is the man with the moderate-price car.

II

There still seems to be a notion in some quarters that any tire is good enough for a small car.

That's not what the man who owns it thinks.

In recommending and selling U. S. Tires we are trying to see his side of the proposition—finding out what he wants in a tire and giving him that.

III

Large or small, U. S. Tires are built to only one standard of quality—the standard that produced the first straight side automobile tire, the first pneumatic truck tire.

Every tire that bears the name "U. S." is built the best way its makers know how. It isn't the car, but the man who owns the car, that counts with the oldest and largest rubber concern in the world.

IV

As representatives of U. S. Tires in this town, we offer you the benefit of our experience and advice in settling your tire problem.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:
In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Heavy.

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Uso.

For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.

For best results—everywhere—U. S. Royal Cords.

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Fanny Hurst of New York, the writer, Tuesday announced that Wednesday was the fifth anniversary of her wedding. In acknowledging that she is legally Mrs. Jacques S. Danielson wife of the pianist and composer, she emphasized that in everything except the purely domestic circumstances that are but an incident of her life and that of her husband she wishes to be simply Miss Hurst.

The writer gave details of a remarkable marital agreement. She meets her husband only by appointment, they maintain separate studio apartments, they have averaged two breakfasts a week together since the ceremony and by the terms of a pre-nuptial understanding neither is to give an accounting for the time spent apart from the other. Miss Hurst said today:

"Our marriage is the result of very definite theories concerning wedlock. We decided to sail into the sea of matrimony in a bark of our own designing. It has not sprung a leak during five years on the high seas."

"Five years ago, when I met Mr. Danielson in musical circles, I found that my youthful determination that marriage was not for me suddenly undermined. But my determination that marriage should never lessen my capacity for creative work or pull me down to a sedentary state of fat-mindness was not undermined."

"First of all, I am anxious to emphasize that our marriage was not the result of a fad, but simply the working out of a problem according to the highly specialized needs of two professional people."

Miss Hurst said she was born in St. Louis, in 1889 and that her husband was born in Petrograd 39 years ago. She added: "Being firmly of the opinion that nine out of 10 of the alliances I saw about me were merely sordid endurance tests overgrown with fungi of familiarity and contempt convinced that too often the sacred human relationship wears off like a piece of high sheen damask and in a few months becomes as a breakfast cloth, stale with soft-boiled egg strains, I made certain resolution concerning what my marriage should not be."

Explain again just what the effects of eye strain are in most cases.

The effects vary with the extent of the strain, and the extent of the strain depends to a considerable degree upon the amount of the error of vision. Most people who suffer from persistent eye strain experience a variety of annoying symptoms.

Do glasses correct these conditions?

Yes, almost at once in many cases.

Would people be wise to learn the condition of their eyes even though they have no reason to suspect that they are abnormal?

Yes, because only by an examination can the condition of the eyes be known, and in many cases a hidden defect may be handicapping a person greatly.

Then in some cases eye defects may be present without the knowledge of the patient?

Yes, in many cases a person grows to adult age without learning the condition of the eyes.

MISS SCHRYVER HOSPITAL MATRON

At the meeting of the trustees of the District Tubercular Hospital, Chillicothe Wednesday, Miss Florence Schryver, former superintendent of the Fayette Hospital in this city, was chosen matron of the District Hospital, succeeding Miss Dye.

Although enjoying all her life a wide circle of friends and being to a great extent interested in social and community activities Mrs. Bradley was essentially a home woman, a wife and mother, and the loss which her death brings to home and family is beyond remedy.

Here in her home—the home of her childhood, of her young womanhood and of her later years, the deep sorrow felt and expressed by the many friends, the deep sympathy for the bereaved family, is abundant proof of the sincere affection which this community had for Mrs. Bradley and a high testimonial to the splendid character of a noble woman.

Funeral services will be held two o'clock Friday afternoon at the home. Burial will be made in Washington cemetery.

She was the daughter of the late Captain John Robinson, was born in Washington C. H. and lived here practically all of her life with the exception of about 25 years when she and her husband resided in Baltimore.

Miss Chloe Anderson left Wednesday afternoon to continue her studies at the Moody Institute in Chicago, after a ten days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Anderson.

INABILITY TO GET GRAVEL IS WORRY OF PAVING FIRM

Inability to secure gravel has put a stumbling block in the way of the Andrews Asphalt Paving Company and has delayed the patch work on the streets of the city. It is announced at the Andrews offices that the company will open up their own gravel pit. As many trucks as possible will be secured for hauling the gravel and these will be reinforced by teams.

By Thursday all excavation work on North street will have been completed by the steam shovel. Another steam shovel much larger than the big one being used is on the way, having been shipped from Hamilton on April 22, but has failed to arrive. It will be used in digging gravel.

Preparations are being made on North street for receiving the "plant" and the siding is being put in shape to receive the huge piece of machinery. It is due to arrive in this city within a few days.

In the meantime, assisted by the fair weather of the week, the company is going ahead and making all preparations possible so that when the shipments and material are ready there will be no obstacle standing in the way of fast resurfacing work.

FAYETTE MAY GET PART CAR OF FISH

Fayette county fishermen were made happy at a special meeting of the Fayette County Fish and Game Association at the Court House Monday evening by the announcement that Fayette county has been allotted a part car, or probably an entire car-load, of fish for the streams.

The fish have been allotted by the state department and are due to arrive at any time but conditions confronting lake fishermen in bagging the restocking specimens have caused delay. A storm on the lake recently played havoc with preparations being made by the state department fishermen for securing the fish, it was announced by Fish and Game Protector Frank Hard.

Game fish will form a large part of the shipment and bass by the thousands will be turned loose in Fayette waters to afford sport for the fishermen later on.

WEEK IS DIVIDED FOR THE BOWLERS

In order to more adequately accommodate the bowlers who use the Y. M. C. A. alleys division of the week has been made so that groups may roll on the same night. While the rule will not be steadfast the evening will be reserved if the bowlers so desire.

Mondays evening will be "Y" members night; Tuesday will be Methodist and Presbyterian day; Wednesday will be Baptists and Christians day; Thursday will be Bankers and Barbers day; Friday will be Grocers and Merchants day; Saturday will be Farmers and Citizens day.

Bowlers are making efforts to get their names on the Honor Roll for the month of May. The first to qualify was Harley Wilkins, 262; Walter Story was second with 204; A. W. Duff was the third man to qualify and he also rolled the best score, 213.

Insect Pests
Fly From Killo

Moths and other insect pests are due now. Happy is the housewife who has discovered the merits of Killo, the great disinfectant. It cleans out these nuisances, for a little of this almost odorless powder dusted about their haunts frees here from these annoyances. Ants, cockroaches, and other insects find it a deadly poison, with no danger to human beings or domestic animals. In the sickroom or for disinfectant purposes, it proves equally valuable.

Manufacturers of Killo make the famous Duffee remedies including Duffee's Fifty-Fifty Tonic Laxative, which is invaluable at this season of the year, when the system is sluggish and heavy. This excellent tablet contains no habit forming drugs and induces natural action without unfavorable results.

Both of these, together with Duffee's Cough Syrup and Cring's Household Balm, are sold generally by grocers and druggists.—Advt.

HEAD UP RECENT DAYS BY THE EXCESSIVE rains which have kept the fields in an almostimmered condition favorable weather has brought about the sudden change and has permitted the tillers of the land to make rapid strides in an attempt to reach normal conditions.

More gasoline tractors are being used than ever before and it is stated by J. A. Harbaugh, government agricultural expert in charge of the Smith Hughes course in Washington high school that no observance of working hours is being made, some farmers running their tractors far into the night without stopping during the day. While the hour of noon is taken by the regular driver another man steps on the plow and keeps it moving.

Professor Harbaugh states that he knows of one boy in the high school who goes home each evening and drives the tractor driver at dusk to keep the machine moving until almost midnight. A movement is on foot to let the agricultural students spend part of their time on the farm and assist their fathers with the spring work. It is pointed out that the practical experience would more than offset the time lost in the classroom. Action will be taken on this question within a few days.

Lack of farm labor has prompted

If any member of the family suffers from stomach trouble, kidney, liver, bowel or blood troubles, sciatica, catarrh, rheumatism, or needs a general tonic to build them up, you cannot do better than to go to the nearest drug store and get a bottle of Dreco, the great root and herb remedy, which did so much good for Mr. Elrice E. Bair, who lives at Union Town, near Canton, O. "This is the first relief I have known in twenty years, and I want all my friends to know what has done it. I've suffered from rheumatism so bad that my joints were swelled up. My muscles would get so sore I could hardly touch them—even the bed clothes hurt sometimes. I got very nervous so that sleep was impossible; had bitter taste in my mouth; dizzy spells would hit me, and my appetite was about gone. I read in the papers about Dreco and decided to try it, and it sure has given me great relief. I can now walk and bend my joints without pain. My muscles are no longer sore and stiff, and I haven't had a dizzy spell since I started on Dreco. This is great medicine and I want everyone to know about it."

Dreco acts on the bowels and relieves constipation; cures a sluggish liver to full action, strengthens the kidneys, purifies the blood, quietes the nerves, induces sound sleep, and acts as a tonic to vital organs, giving renewed energy and resistance.

Dreco is now sold by all good druggists and is being specially introduced in this city by
